LOS ANGELES EXAMINER

NOV 28 1957

Frank Roberts

Circ.: m.

NUV 28 1957 Gg 3 J₂
352, Approved For Release 2003/12/02 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000400230003-6

S.

706,027

Edit Other Front Page Page

Date:

Much-Decorated Ft. MacArthur Chief:

Gen. Roberts Takes Final Salute

After 37 years of service, Maj. Gen. Frank N. Roberts senior Army commander in southern California and commanding general of Fort Mac. Arthur retirement ceremo including members of the 47th Antiaircraft Artillery Brigade, a Women's Army civilian aide to the Secretary manding general of Fort Mac. Firthur retired yesterday and colorful ceremonies at the post.

Graduated from West Point in 1920, Gen. Roberts is one of the few Army officers to hold the Navy Cross and has alled many important positions.

At the retirement ceremo Perry, commanding general, Arth AAA Brigade, and Don Belding, Southern California Civilian aide to the Secretary Of the Army Corps unit and ROTC cadets of the Army Distinguished Roberts' honor.

Standing with the general leaf clusters and is a Commanding with the general leaf clusters and is a Commander of the Order of the from the troops were Maj. British Empire, will become Gen. Robert Howze, deputy a civilian worker at the Cencommanding general of the trail Intelligence Agency in Sixth Army, Brig. Gen. W. A. Washington, D. C.